

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 22, 2013

Ms. Savannah Gonzalez
Assistant District Attorney
Hidalgo County
100 North Closner, Room 303
Edinburg, Texas 78539

OR2013-18330

Dear Ms. Gonzalez:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 503721.

The Hidalgo County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for six items of information related to physical and ballistic-related evidence and photographs of the victim's truck related to a specified incident. You claim the requested photographs are excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered your claim.

You assert the requestor asks factual questions in five items of the request. A governmental body is not required to answer factual questions, conduct legal research, or create new information in responding to a request for information under the Act. See Open Records Decision Nos. 563 at 8 (1990), 555 at 1-2 (1990). A governmental body must make a good-faith effort, however, to relate a request to responsive information that is within its possession or control. See Open Records Decision No. 561 at 8-9 (1990). We assume the sheriff's office has done so.

You state the sheriff's office "has not located photographs responsive to [the] request." The Act does not require a governmental body that receives a request for information to create information that did not exist when the request was received. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dism'd);

Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 563 at 8 (1990), 555 at 1-2 (1990), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983). However, you seek to withhold, "upon the finding of such," the requested photographs under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 552.301 of the Government Code prescribes the procedures a governmental body must follow in asking this office to decide whether requested information is excepted from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.301. Pursuant to section 552.301(e), a governmental body that receives a request for information it wishes to withhold under an exception to disclosure is required to submit to this office within fifteen business days of receiving the request (1) written comments stating the reasons why the stated exceptions apply that would allow the information to be withheld, (2) a copy of the written request for information, (3) a signed statement or sufficient evidence showing the date the governmental body received the written request, and (4) a copy of the specific information requested or representative samples, labeled to indicate which exceptions apply to which parts of the documents. Id. § 552.301(e). As of the date of this letter, you have not submitted a copy or representative sample of the specific information requested. Consequently, we find the sheriff's office failed to comply with the requirements of section 552.301(e).

Pursuant to section 552.302 of the Government Code, a governmental body's failure to comply with the requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption the information is public and must be released. Information presumed public must be released unless a governmental body demonstrates a compelling reason to withhold the information to overcome this presumption. See id. § 552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ) (governmental body must make compelling demonstration to overcome presumption of openness pursuant to statutory predecessor to section 552.302); see also Open Records Decision No. 630 (1994). Generally, a compelling reason to withhold information exists where some other source of law makes the information confidential or where third-party interests are at stake. Open Records Decision No. 150 at 2 (1977). Section 552.108 of the Government Code is a discretionary exception to disclosure that may be waived. See Simmons, 166 S.W.3d at 350 (section 552.108 is not compelling reason to withhold information under section 552.302); Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (untimely request for decision resulted in waiver of discretionary exceptions), 177 (1977) (statutory predecessor to section 552.108 subject to waiver). In failing to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301, the sheriff's office has waived its claim under section 552.108. Therefore, to the extent the requested photographs existed on the date the request for information was received, the sheriff's office must release the photographs. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(a), .302; see also Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000).
